Selection of Cantillon Meets Hearty Approval.

New Leader of the Washington Club Will Weed Out the Men Who Can He Is a Strong Disciplinarian.

Washington fandom breathed the atmosphere of complete satisfaction yesterday when the good word was received that the Nationals would be guided next year by Joe Cantillon. Winter baseball quarters were agog over the discussions of the possibilities of the future in the the better. They doped it out that to bewhole it fell short of championship class. Manager Cantillon comes here to make good in a major league. He has been successful in an organization that is nearly as strong as either of the big leagues, and it will be his endeavor to make more out of the Washington club than any other previous manager. The long distance records remained intact, but several Englishmen put up good races, but far behind anything like Shrubb would reel off were he still in the amateur ranks. Out on the Pacific Slope a runner named Connel made two miles in 9 minutes 51 1-5 seconds, and this was next to Bonhag's, and, incidentally, a new mark for the Coast, supplanting ar old figure of 16 minutes 16 seconds, by Hunter, in 1893.
